Free eye exam for working dogs. Register by tomorrow.

April
28

Sorry for the late notice, but this was sent to me while I was away. Anyway, there's still time. This (kind of) just in from the Katonah Bedford Veterinary Center.

Bedford Hills, NY – Katonah Bedford Veterinary Center in Bedford Hills, NY is teaming up with The American College of Veterinary Ophthalmologists® (ACVO) to take part in the ACVO Exam event, May 4 – 8, 2009. This event will provide free sight-saving eye exams to service dogs throughout New York, Connecticut and New Jersey. Registration ends April 29. (Hc

How to Register

In order to qualify, dogs must be active "working dogs," certified by a formal training program or organization or currently enrolled in a formal training program. The certifying organization is in nature.

*Specific service groups are listed on the website at www.acvoeyexam.org

*Owners/agents for the dog(s) must first register online at www.acvoeyexam.org

*Once registered, the owner/agent can contact Katonah Bedford Veterinary Center to schedule an appointment. The KBVC phone number is: 914-241-7700.

*Registration Ends April 29th

This will be the second year Katonah Bedford Veterinary Center has participated in this national event. Last year, more than 1,500 service dogs were examined across the U.S. and by certified veterinary ophthalmologists. "These dogs are doing wonderful things for their owners," according to Dr. Cory Mosunic, Board Certified Veterinary Ophthalmologist at KBVC. "It is a big deal for these dogs, so we'll be looking for any retinal disease or early cataracts. We're also looking for things that will limit their vision down the road, whether it's an ingrown scratch of the cornea. It's a complete ocular exam."

About the author

Laurel Babcock is the Community Life editor for The Journal News, Express Publications and LoHud.com. She grew up with a beloved mutt and was surrounded by dogs in enough, but didn't really think of them as true pets. That changed when her brother brought an abandoned 4-week-old kitty into the family, dooming us all. Laurel currently has two cats, Stanley and Cup, both girls.
