Free eye exams for service dogs

Sign up now for free eye exams for your service dog. The American College of Veterinary Ophthalmologists will offer its second annual National Service Dog Eye Exam Day in May.

"Our hope is that by checking these animals' vision on the national day of service, we will be able to help a large number of dogs better assist their human friends," said ACVO executive director Stacey Daniel.

Exams will take place between May 3-9, 2009. Last year, ACVO participating members examined 1500 dogs across the country. Check out this video to see exams of the dogs who serve your community.

To qualify, dogs must be active "working dogs" that have been certified by a formal training program or organization, or currently enrolled in a formal training program to qualify. You must register your dog for the exam to find an ophthalmologist in your area who is participating.
