ACVO/Merial's National Service Dog Eye Exam Month May 2010

Animal Eye Clinic will provide screening examinations for:

Certified dogs from the following Service Dog groups:

- ~ guide dogs
- ~ handicapped assistance dogs
- ~ detection dogs
- ~ search and rescue dogs

Exams are limited to those dogs currently in active service; not dogs in training, or retired.

Service Dogs must have been formally trained and/or have certification or paperwork attesting to their training through a national, regional or local organization.

In order to receive an examination:

Log onto www.acvoeyeexam.org. Owners/agents for the dog must complete the online registration form. Once registered, you provided with contact information for a participating ophthalmologist in your area. After registration, you must contact ophthalmologist to schedule an appointment. The registration number assigned to the service dog must be provided to t

When is registration?

Registration will take place from April 1st thru May 16th..

Will the pet wellness report be given this year?

No, this event is restricted to ocular examination.

What if the service dog is diagnosed with an ocular malady and requires services beyond eye screening exams?

The complimentary exam is for screening purposes only. Should an ocular disease be diagnosed, or further diagnostic work-up be indicated; these would all be at our normal billable rates. Animal Eye Clinic staff would notify the handler if billable services are suggested time of the exam.
