 The American College of Veterinary Ophthalmologists is sponsoring free eye exams for service dogs in the U.S. and Canada, with registration starting April 1 and continuing through May 16.
 The exams will be offered by more than 170 participating board-certified veterinary ophthalmologists during the whole month of May. In Central Florida, Animal Eye Associates in Maitland is listed as a participating office.
 The third annual AVCO/Merial National Service Dog Eye Exam Event is sponsored by ACVO, Merial, I-MED Pharma Inc., Ocu-GLO Rx, Canine Vision Supplement and Wedgewood Pharmacy. It is intended to serve guide dogs, handicapped-assistance dogs, detection dogs and search-and-rescue dogs, including nearly 100 dogs at Lackland Air Force Base in San Antonio, Texas — the hub for U.S. military service-dog training.
 To qualify, dogs must be active "working dogs" that were certified by a formal training program or organization or currently enrolled in a formal training program. Specific service groups are listed at the Web site where dog owners or agents must register April 1-May16. Once registered online, contact a participating veterinary ophthalmologist directly to schedule an appointment during May. Appointments are arranged first come, first served.
